

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK
OCTOBER 3-9, 2021

Randolph County 4-H clubs

Membership in Missouri 4-H Youth Development Programs is open to all youth 5 to 19 years of age. People of all ages participate in 4-H programs, from preschoolers to grandparents. The list of 4-H projects is so varied that every 4-H member and adult volunteer is sure to find something of interest.

It doesn't matter where you live, 4-H is open to all young people. Whether you live in the country, a small town or a big city, you can participate in 4-H.

Joining 4-H is easy! Call the Randolph County Extension Center at 660.269.9656.

There is a small fee to join 4-H. Check with the extension center for details. In addition, some projects may require a small investment to get started, and there may be charges for materials or special trips.

The program year is from October 1 through September 30.

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK

OCTOBER 3-9, 2021

Clark Helping Hands 4-H Club honors our heroes and remember our fallen heroes.

Here are a few photos of our members placing flags on graves at New Hope, Chapel Grove and Fairview cemeteries in Randolph county. What a great history lesson it was.

Owner of Mid Missouri Public Safety Consulting and Training LLC, Bobby Calvert, instructs 4-H youth on self-awareness and self-defense. This will be a yearly course for newcomers and refreshers for current 4-H members.

4-H members Natalie Ritter and Annabelle Perkins work on their tailgate benches with volunteer leader Mike Crain.
